Description

The 2025 Triumph Speed Triple 1200 RS is an uncompromising flagship hyper-naked roadster, masterfully combining explosive triple-cylinder performance with cutting-edge electronic Öhlins suspension, razor-sharp agility, and aggressive British streetfighter styling. Finished in sleek factory metallic silver with red accents and gold forks, its twin-headlight front profile, single-sided swingarm, and muscular stance give it an undeniable, commanding road presence. At its heart sits Triumph's ferocious 1,160cc liquid-cooled inline three-cylinder engine, engineered to deliver blistering acceleration, massive midrange torque, and a thrilling, unmistakable triple soundtrack. Gear changes are lightning-fast via a factory quickshifter/blipper system, while chassis dynamics are track-sharp and planted, supported by semi-active electronic Öhlins suspension and high-specification Brembo brakes for immense stopping power. Equipped with high-end carbon fibre, protective upgrades, and a comprehensive suite of modern rider tech, this Speed Triple 1200 RS comes feature-packed. Styling and protective additions include a colour-matched seat cowl, a carbon fibre rear hugger, bar-end mirrors, a tank pad, and an Evotech radiator guard. Rider comfort and cockpit technology feature factory heated grips, selectable Rider Modes, a vibrant full-colour TFT display dash with phone connectivity, and all original keys and books.
