Description

The Bailey Unicorn Deluxe Cadiz 2026 strikes the perfect balance between luxury and practicality, making it an excellent choice for couples who appreciate personal space or families of up to four. Its layout is thoughtfully designed, offering fixed rear single beds for uninterrupted sleep, a front lounge that quickly converts into another double or twin singles, and a large rear washroom that feels more like a boutique ensuite than a caravan bathroom. The kitchen is fully equipped for real cooking, featuring a dual-fuel hob, tower fridge with freezer, flatbed microwave, and handy pull-out storage. With programmable Alde central heating and customisable ambient lighting, you'll stay cosy whatever the weather. Entertainment is effortless thanks to the SONOS portable speaker, digital aerial, and TV-ready setup. Outside, the aerodynamic Alu-Tech body is as durable as it is eye-catching, with bold chrome and bronze graphics and alloy wheels completing the look. A built-in solar panel, external BBQ and mains points, and the AL-KO trailer control system make it as functional as it is stylish. Whether you're touring the coast or parking up at a favourite countryside site, the Cadiz makes every mile feel like part of the holiday.
