Description

Brand New 2026 Aprilia RSV4 1100 Factory. BRAND NEW, UN-REGISTERED, Now saving £3960. In Aprilia there is a nomenclature that simply serves to indicate the best of the best: Factory. The versions that can boast this name have always been the pinnacle of technology, content and know how from Noale, true incarnations of technique and speed. This generation of V4 is no exception and also brings its top exponents RSV4 Factory and Tuono V4 Factory, bikes intended for those seeking the best in terms of performance, both on the track and on the road, with a cut oriented towards sportiness and exclusivity. Simply the undisputed King, the RSV4 Factory is the top of the Aprilia Racing range and brings with it first class equipment. As per tradition, complete equipment with premium semi active Öhlins Smart EC 2.0 suspension Öhlins upside down fork, fully adjustable with TiN treatment and 125 mm wheel travel, Öhlins monoshock with 115 mm wheel travel and Öhlins steering damper). Incredible dynamic qualities are also brought by the pair of forged aluminum alloy wheels with 5 split spokes. The a PRC system is enriched by Bending lights, Aprilia Cruise Control (ACC), Aprilia Launch Control (ALC), Aprilia Pit Limiter (APL), Aprilia Slide Control (ASC), Aprilia Damping Control (ADC) and 3 additional Riding Modes (Track1, Track2 and Race). RSV4 Factory also comes with the GPS module and the Aprilia MIA multimedia system already installed, this also allows you to take full advantage of the Corner By Corner engine and suspension functions right away, as well as being able to activate the Lap Trigger to always have lap times under control, which are also visible in the RACE mode included in the dashboard. The improvements on the new V4s don't end there.To make the most of the impressive aPRC Suite and all the electronic upgrades, the RSV4 and Tuono V4 have also been updated in the graphics of the bright 5” bonded TFTs, now even more user friendly, modern and clear in their information. Each screen has been revised with a view to making the user experience not only more satisfying, but also faster and more intuitive. To always be ready to intervene even in the evening hours and inside tunnels, the control blocks also acquire backlighting. On the RSV4 you will no longer have to worry about managing the fun for fear of running out of fuel, this bike is finally equipped with a clear fuel level indication on the dashboard, so as to give you time to stop and refuel.
