Description

BRAND NEW 2026 CFMOTO 1000 MT-X, IN STOCK NOW The all-new CFMOTO 1000MT-X marks a bold entry into the litre-class adventure segment, blending long-distance touring comfort with genuine off-road capability. Powered by a 946cc parallel-twin engine producing 112hp and 105Nm of torque, it delivers strong, responsive performance across any terrain. Designed to suit a wide range of riders, the 1000MT-X is available with a choice of 830mm or 870mm seat heights, ensuring confidence and comfort on every journey. With advanced rider aids, premium components and a large-capacity fuel tank for extended range, it’s built for those who want to go further, on and off the beaten track. Powered by a 946.2cc parallel twin engine platform, it delivers reliable, smooth, torque rich performance that keeps strong drive on tap across the mid to high rev range. Professional tuning and Bosch EFI create ultra precise, lag free throttle control, translating every input into clean, linear acceleration that feels confident and easy to manage. Whether climbing mountains, crossing loose terrain, or overtaking on the highway, giving you strong thrust without harshness. Lightweight engineering and refined craftsmanship further enhance durability and agility. A full suite of Bosch electronics turns every ride into confident, intelligent control. Cornering ABS works seamlessly with the rider’s inputs for stable braking through changing grip, while three-level adjustable TCS lets you tailor traction for tarmac, gravel, or more demanding terrain. 4+1 riding modes refine the bike’s character across conditions, with Standard, Rain, Off-road,
