The exterior of the car presents very well, as you would hope for a car presented by ourselves. All badges, glass & lights are in very good condition, as are the original & factory option 18 Turbo Wheels. The roof is in excellent condition as can be seen in the pictures, no fading & no damage. A timeless design in excellent order. Interior & Trim Inside, the cabin features optional full 'Soft Look' leather upholstery in superb condition. The seat bolsters retain their original shape & structure with negligible wear, mirroring the very low mileage. The original switchgear, leather steering wheel, & dashboard remain in fantastic condition. Factory options include heated electric seats, traction control, & the desirable period MiniDisc radio paired with the factory CD changer. Original floor mats are still in place & are of course in good condition too. Every control operates exactly as Porsche intended of course & the interior shows very minimal wear throughout. Engine At the heart of the Boxster S is the naturally aspirated 3.2-litre flat-six engine producing around 250 bhp. Coupled with the crisp 6-speed manual gearbox, this car offers a raw, analogue driving experience that modern sports cars simply cannot replicate – it really does drive exceptionally well. The car starts & runs beautifully, no unwanted noises, no smoking, just a nice quiet engine which performs very well with a smooth power delivery through the rev range. Having undergone regular main dealer maintenance throughout its life & a fresh main-dealer check over & oil service, plus new spark plugs, fuel pump & other items also fitted recently. Running Gear With its mid-engine layout, uprated 'S' suspension & larger cross-drilled brakes, the 986 S is widely celebrated as one of the best handling chassis of its era. On the road, the steering feels communicative & tight, the clutch & gear shift are precise, & the chassis feels completely composed. Having covered just 25,297 miles from new, it offers the tight, factory fresh dynamic feel that begs to be driven.
