Description

There's simply no better choice for introducing kids to motorcycling than the CRF50F. The pocket-size machine is armed with a fun-but-reliable 49cc air-cooled four-stroke engine with an automatic clutch, and its 10-inch wheels and low seat height instil confidence in young riders who are just getting started on collecting lifetimes of motorcycling memories. It receives a graphic update to bring it in line with its larger CRF250R and CRF450R siblings.
