Description

1950 Bentley Mark 6 Saloon Chassis Number: B82HR Registration Number: B6-0109 (British Columbia) 1950 MKVI by Mulliner chassis # B82HR Work undertaken recently mileage wise, under previous ownership and as shown in the photo information the engine was completely rebuilt. Prior to that the front suspension was rebuilt and the rear wheel bearing lubrication addressed. The car has had a very thorough restoration which has stood up very well and drives very nicely. There are some very minor paint issues that if addressed would make the car winning show quality. The chrome is in very good condition. All major tools are present. Some minor tools are missing. There is a discretely mounted radio in the drivers side glove box. The owners handbook and a file full of supporting documentation will accompany the vehicle. The interior leather has been redone & as a result is in super condition whilst the door cards remain original. The two tone colour scheme in yellow over brown is pleasing to the eye & gives the car a striking appearance. The seatbacks have walnut picnic tables fitted to them; additionally there is a slide out table under the dash board in the front of the car. Viewings are by prior appointment in British Columbia.
