Forza 350 - The Power To Go Further The Forza 350 is a true sports GT scooter, delivering powerful engine performance, HSTC for confident riding, and excellent fuel efficiency, all in a sleek design with generous under-seat storage. Stay connected throughout your day with the 5-inch TFT screen and Honda RoadSync integration, providing seamless access to phone calls, music, and navigation while you ride. Fairing and Headlights Lead the Way The Forza 350 sets the style bar high and is a fast-moving sculpture of aerodynamic efficiency and stunning good looks. The restyled front fairing, LED headlights and taillight – drawing big-bike inspiration from the range-topping Forza 750 – combine sleekly, managing airflow to reduce rider back pressure at speed, and increase comfort. And choose between wind protection or a cooling breeze at the touch of a button, thanks to the electric screen. Around Town Practicality Lightweight and agile, this scooter is built for seamless city and suburban living. LED headlights ensure you're easily seen by other road users, enhancing safety.
