A while ago the rear lever arm shock absorbers have been upgraded to telescopic units, an alternator has replaced the generator. All replaced parts will come with car. The interior wood in excellent condition and one would suspect refinished, the engine has been refreshed with details seen in the receipts. Originally Circassian blue observations indicate that the car has been bare metal repainted and refreshed at a later date prior to current ownership. There is no evidence of accident damage. The interior carpets have been replaced and are in excellent condition. All the cars tools and straps are present. An owners manual and a thick file of ownership history are included. The leather is original & patinated, covered with sheepskin seat covers to the front to preserve the original leather underneath. The car has covered some 175,000 miles from new. An assortment of period paperwork comes with the car. Viewings are by appointment in Vancouver. This is a good honest quite original patinated car with older paint & is in very useable condition.
