Description

An excellent example of Triumphs hugely popular Tiger Sport 660, offering the perfect combination of sporty performance, touring comfort and everyday practicality. With its striking styling, versatile riding position and impressive triple-cylinder engine, the Tiger Sport 660 is an ideal motorcycle for commuting, weekend rides and longer-distance adventures. Powered by Triumphs responsive 660cc liquid-cooled, three-cylinder engine, producing an impressive 81PS, this bike delivers smooth, accessible power throughout the rev range, accompanied by the distinctive soundtrack that makes Triumphs triple engines so desirable. This example benefits from the addition of heated grips, providing extra comfort during colder rides, along with a genuine Triumph top box, offering convenient and secure storage for everyday essentials or touring equipment. These desirable extras make an already versatile motorcycle even more practical. Standard specification includes ABS braking, switchable traction control, ride-by-wire throttle and two riding modes – Road and Rain – allowing the rider to adapt the bikes characteristics to suit different conditions. Further features include full LED lighting, a colour TFT display with integrated LCD instrumentation, an adjustable windscreen, slip-and-assist clutch and a six-speed gearbox. The Tiger Sport 660 also benefits from Showa suspension, twin 310mm front brake discs with Nissin callipers and a comfortable 835mm seat height. Its upright riding position, spacious seating and generous 17.2-litre fuel tank make it particularly well suited to longer journeys. Whether
