Gleaming Basalt Black metallic over a black sports leather trim. This 997 boasts the revised & larger IMS bearing for total peace of mind. Cherished by its last owner since 2014 for 12 years. Pedigree & provenance with superb history. As of recent the 997 has shown appreciation, it was the last Gen of the 911's to have Hydraulic steering before going with electric-assisted steering. Fundamentally, a fine modern classic, useable & truly still retains that original classic 911 feel & aesthetics being nimble in size. The naturally aspirated engine has a beautiful driving note, the 3.8 flat 6 is a perfect candidate on the country roads with the engaging 6 Speed manual transmission.
