Description

The Bailey Unicorn Deluxe Seville 2026 is a top-tier two-berth caravan ideal for couples seeking refined comfort or solo travellers chasing open-road freedom. Its front parallel lounge offers flexible sleeping- two singles or one generous double- while the rear boasts a full-width washroom with a proper shower, toilet, and washbasin. Measuring just over 21 feet in shipping length and under 1,436kg in maximum weight, it's towable yet generously equipped. Inside, the well-appointed kitchen features a dual-fuel hob, large tower fridge, branded microwave, and an elegant undermounted sink. Warmth and comfort come via the Alde radiator heating system, while ambient lighting lets you set the mood. For entertainment, you've got a SONOS portable speaker with Alexa, digital TV aerial, and TV-ready stations. Outside, the aerodynamic Alu-Tech bodyshell and bold chrome-bronze graphics give the Seville a sleek, modern edge. With extras like a solar panel, external BBQ and power points, and AL-KO trailer control, it's ready for real adventures. Whether you're a seasoned tourer or just starting your caravanning journey, the Seville makes every trip feel like home.
