Description

The B7 RS4 is an anomaly. When it arrived in 2005 there was nothing new on the surface. We'd seen four-wheel-drive, muscle-bound Audi RS products before, but the B7 was sewn from different DNA than its forebears. The Lamborghini Gallardo steering wheel is the first hint of its intentions. The rev counter, with red paint starting at 8250rpm, is the second. The final revelation comes when you take the RS4 to the edge and it gives back with supreme control and interaction. This B7-generation Audi RS4 Avant is a practical yet highly potent modern classic high-performance estate. Audi settled on a naturally aspirated 4.2-litre V8 for the B7. The 414bhp unit has a hunger for revs but also offers breadth and range, pulling hard no matter where you slot the ball-topped gearlever with its 6 speed manual transmission – it's no surprise that the motor found a home in the R8 a couple of years later This B7-era RS4 Avant is finished in the lesser seen Imola yellow, wing back seats, Heated Front and Outer Rear Seating, Aluminium and Perforated Leather Sports Steering Wheel. Carbon Trim to Interior, Technology Package - includes DVD Navigation System with Screen, Bose Hi Fi, 6 Disc CD Auto changer, Rear Window Blinds, Carpet Over mats, Luggage Shield, Climate Control Air Conditioning, Electric Windows and Mirrors, 19" Double Spoke Alloy Wheels, Cruise Control, Self Dimming Rear View Mirror, Cool Box to Glove Compartment, Parking Sensors, Aluminium Roof Rails, Xenon Headlights. This Audi RS4 Avant is a powerful and highly versatile modern classic high-performance estate with particularly low mileage. Presented with an incredible show stopping colour scheme, understated styling, and boasting a spacious and well-appointed cabin alongside a potent V8, it would make a remarkably capable companion for rapid daily driving, weekend cruising, and long-distance road trips alike. Supplied fully serviced with new mot for total peace of mind. Trends illustrate these proving to be a great investment car too.
