variant, the 3.2 343bhp engine makes for an incredibly powerful & responsive drive. Importantly it has the Appreciated & desirable manual gearbox combined with rasp of the exhaust is addictive. In a world of turbocharged performance cars, the M3's naturally aspirated engine is a breath of fresh air. Throttle response is virtually instantaneous. Sport mode provides for a refined and adaptive drive echoing that fine & deep driving soundtrack. Great value for money and would be hard to replicate such ownership and history at this price
