Description

FOR SALE: Seat Altea 2010 – A Serious Family Car with Style and Substance If you're in the market for a dependable, practical family car that doesn't sacrifice personality, this Seat Altea ticks all the boxes. Built with Spanish flair and backed by German engineering, it's the best of both worlds—a perfect combination of style and reliability. DETAILS: - Mileage: 140,000 miles, but you'd never guess it from the way this car drives or looks. It's been well-maintained and is ready for many more journeys. - Year: 2010, offering a modern design that still holds its own on the road today. - Features: Spacious interior, flexible seating, and a zippy engine that makes running errands feel less like a chore and more like a treat. WHY CHOOSE THIS SEAT ALTEA? - German reliability ensures you'll get where you're going without a fuss, while Spanish flair adds a touch of excitement to your drive. - It's practical and versatile, perfect for families or anyone who values comfort and efficiency in a car. - At just £2,512, it's an absolute bargain for the quality and capability on offer. - 12m MOT for peace of mind and a warranty too! WHAT MAKES IT SPECIAL? The Seat Altea isn't just a car—it's a smart choice. Its sharp looks and robust build make it stand out in a sea of generic hatchbacks. And while some cars make compromises between practicality and performance, this one delivers both in
