That is the main reason why Japanese used cars have very low mileage Japanese do not drive long distance. * Superb car condition According to the Ministry of Transport in Japan vehicles has to be in good condition to run on the road. The Ministry of transport constantly check the road worthiness test called (shaken). A brand new car is given a full checkup after three years. The second shaken test will be given in two years. According to the test the body condition of the vehicle and and the mileage, goes down. That is the reason why there is a large number of Japanese used cars. Superb condition of the roads in Japan is a another reason the Japanese vehicles are in good condition. Japanese prefer to buy new cars. That is the reason there is a large number of Japanese used cars. Japanese used cars and spare parts are not only cheap but also worth every cent you pay. * Body Condition The condition of the vehicle engine of the Japanese used cars are in excellent condition. The cars are checked at service stations regularly. Oil is changed on time. Japanese people are very clean they regularly clean and Polish their cars. The exterior and interior condition is amazing when compared to American and European cars. Even if you used a Japanese used car for ten years still the condition is very good. * We only import high specification rust free examples WE DON'T JUST SELL JAP IMPORT CAR WE ALSO SERVICE 'REPAIR AND HAVE A LARGE STOCK OF PARTS.
